Res Mechanica 26 (1989) 383–384

CONTENTS OF VOLUME 26

Number 1

Approche Microstructurelle de la Rhéologie des Systèmes Fibreux. II: Analyse Numérique 1
Y. M. HADDAD (Canada)

Large Deflection Analysis of Elasto-plastic Columns Subjected to a Compressive Load 19
B. NAGESWARA RAO & G. VENKATESWARA RAO (India)

Proving Test on the Seismic Reliability of Nuclear Power Plant: PWR Reactor Containment Vessel 35
HIROSHI AKIYAMA, TEIICHI YOSHIKAWA, TOKUE OHNO & EIJI YOSHIKAWA (Japan)

Deformation of an Infinite, Hollow Circular Cylindrical Conductor Carrying a Current and Bearing a Coaxial Viscoelastic Coating 73
A. F. GHALEB & M. A. M. ALLAM (Egypt)

Number 2

A Review of the Fatigue Crack Extension Behaviour of Ferritic Reactor Pressure Vessels Materials in Pressurised Water Reactor Environments . . . 95
J. H. BULLOCH (Republic of South Africa)

A Theoretical Analysis of a Reversed Load Torsion Experiment 173
H. CORDS & R. ZIMMERMANN (FRG)

Number 3

Hysteretic 3-Dimensional Frames under Stochastic Excitation 193
FABIO CASCIATA & LUCIA FARAVELLI (Italy)

Hydrogen-Induced Intergranular Fracture in Ferritic Steels 215
J. KAMEDA (USA)

Correlation between Texture and Mechanical Behaviour of Drawn Aluminium Wires 251
P. F. THOMSON (Australia) & FAN XIONG (People's Republic of China)

Modelling of Cyclic Behaviour of Steel Braces 267
UGO ANDREAUS & PAOLO GAUDENZI (Italy)

Res Mechanica (26) (1989)—© 1989 Elsevier Science Publishers Ltd, England. Printed in Northern Ireland

Number 4

The Theory of Toroidal Elasticity 289
H. A. LANG (USA)

Contribution to the Continuum Theory of Coupled Shear Walls 353
A. COULL (UK)

A Temperature Dependent Strain Hardening Law 371
K. T. KIM (Republic of Korea)
